

P-TECH

Flour Bluff High School

Tutorial Schedule:

Students have 35 minutes in a designated Advisory class everyday except Wednesdays. PTECH students are grouped in individual classes where they have access to their teachers.

An advisory class is primarily intended to provide a dedicated space for students to focus on their personal development, build strong relationships with peers and teachers, set goals, and receive academic support.

Before and after school tutoring is available at teacher discretion.